COMPETITION RULES

A Class Poomsae – Torunament System:

- Competitors enter the mat simultaneously and perform against each other.
- Poomsae are randomly assigned according to current rules once competitors are on the mat.
- The winner of each match advances to the next round to face the winner from the corresponding bracket.

B Class Poomsae – Cut-off System:

- 20+ competitors: Each performs one Poomsae. The top 50% (rounded to an even number) advance to the semifinals.
- 9–19 competitors: Competition begins from the semifinals. Each performs one chosen Poomsae; the top 8 advance to the finals.
- 8 or fewer competitors: Competition starts directly from the finals. Each performs one chosen Poomsae; the top 4 are awarded, with both 3rd and 4th places receiving bronze medals.

NOTE: Due to the large number of competitors or lack of time, the organizer may change the qualification mode, so that instead of two mandatory poomse in each round, one given Poomsae may be performed in agreement with the Technical Committee for the A Class of competitors. In B class, the contestants perform one selected form in each round of the competition.

THE WINNER ANNOUNCEMENT

- The winner is the competitor who has the most points.
- In case of a tie, the winner will be the contestant who has received more points for the presentation.
- In case that the score is still tie, the winner is the one with the highest total of points (total points of all referees, including the highest and lowest marks).
- If case the result is still tie then an extra match will be made to determine the winner. The judge will choose the Poomsae to be scored.
- Again, one mandatory Poomsae is performed. The previous result will not affect the replay result.
- In case the result is tie after the Poomsae has been re-performed, the winner will be the competitor who has more points, including the highest and the lowest score.

FREESTYLE POOMSAE - RULES

Freestyle Poomsae is a performance, based on the Taekwondo techniques composition of music and choreography.

Composition of freestyle Poomsae

- Yeon-mu line will be selected by the contestant.
- Music and choreography will be selected by the contestant.
- The performance must be within the limits of the Tekvondo technique. The definition of Tekvondo technique will be determined by the TAS Refereeing Committee when the contestant submits a freestyle Poomsae. The plan is sent to the email: referee_poomsae@tas.org.rs by the end of the application deadline.
- Poomsae must contain the required elements (5). If one of the required elements is missing it will not be scored.

Regulations on Poomsae and freestyle Poomsae are available on the TAS website.
